Allow me to thank you, personally for your remarks on the Darwinian Theory of Species. — I enclose a little bracket of mine which (Though in appearance rather a bizarre form) you will perceive to have a decisive meaning & one not without bearing on the subject

J. F. W. Herschel, Aug. 16 1860